Written Examination 40%
Dance Practical 60%

GCSE Dance focuses on the technique, performance skills and artistic qualities of dance through performance, choreography and critical appreciation. During the course students will study 4 professional works which will enable them to experience different cultural influences and styles of dance. The course is 60% practical with a 40% written examination. It requires a committed, self motivated student ready for a challenge.

“Dancing gives me confidence and taking the GCSE has improved my technique”

“The whole of the course is really enjoyable, I especially liked doing the composition because it gives you the chance to experience composing your own dance”

“This course helps build confidence which you can use in many different careers. You get to create your own dances and perform”
