

Dear Parent,

As you are aware, your youngster will be starting the AQA GCSE English Literature course in September 2020.

The GCSE English Literature examination course incorporates 3 texts:

- 'A Christmas Carol' by Charles Dickens
- 'Macbeth' by William Shakespeare
- 'An Inspector Calls' by J.B Priestley

The school is able to provide learners with copies of the texts to use in lessons but they will not be allowed to take these copies home to use for revision and they won't be allowed to annotate the texts.

We are offering the opportunity to buy these exam texts so that youngsters have their own copy which they can annotate, highlight key quotations, analyse key extracts and take home for revision. This would be extremely beneficial for the learner as evidenced in previous GCSE groups.

The cost is:

- A Christmas Carol' - £1.65
- 'Macbeth' - £1.65
- 'An Inspector Calls' - £8.20

If you wish to buy any or all of these texts, please use the usual school gateway online payment system on the school website. Cash payment will not be accepted. The deadline for payment is Thursday 10th September. These texts will be provided for those youngsters who receive pupil premium funding.

I hope that you take the opportunity to provide these texts for your child as this will enhance their learning experience.

Your faithfully,

Chris Gates
Learning Director for English and Media
